RAISED BARGE IN POOR CONDITION

Vesta Coal Company Manages to Pull it From Bottom But Damage is Heavy

REPAIRS ARE TO BE MADE

Using a pontoon system rivermen of the Vesta Coal company raised Thursday night one of the two steel barges sunk with 60,000 bushels of coal when they went over Lock No. 4 dam March 10. Ten days and nights persistent effort has been necessary to pull the barge from the river bottom, this being the third attempt. None of the 30,000 bushels of coal in the one barge was saved it having either been washed away by the fall of water over the dam or having dripped through holes in the bottom of the barge. Upon raising the barge from the bottom the Henry A. Laughlin got under steam with one of the most peculiar tows it ever towed down river. The one barge just raised was in the same position it was when brought from the bottom of the river. It was locked tightly between two other barges and under it and attached to them was suspended between by immense chains.

The barge will be taken to Lock No. 3 where two or three bulkheads will be driven into the barge to fill up the holes, and it pumped out. If the barge is then found to be in condition for repairing it will be taken to the shops of the Jones & Laughlin company on the Southside, Pittsburgh. It is believed the barge is in such condition that to repair it and put it in the best of shape ready for use along the Monongahela river will be about as costly as building a new barge. Inasmuch as a new one costs $25,000 the loss can be imagined.

An effort is to be made to raise the other of the two steel barges after the river recedes, and the same method will be used. There is not now believed to be any coal on the bottom of the river, it having been scattered by the rush of water over the dam.

GOOD INTEREST AND ARDOR

IN SPITE OF BAD WEATHER

The severe storm of Wednesday evening spoiled to some extent the attendance at the Methodist Episcopal revival meeting, but did not spoil the ardor. Dr. W. G. Mead, pastor of the church, preached an inspiring sermon on the theme, "Andrew, the Brother's Winner." In his discussion he took up the connection of the life of two great men, John the Baptist and the great apostle, Simon Peter. Peter followed Jesus, said Dr. Mead and in that way came to a personal knowledge of Him. The importance of individual work was emphasized.

Special music was sung by the choir under direction of August Bosson. An inspiring song service preceding the preaching as a feature. Tonight special music will also be featured, and in the church plan this will be the night for special recognition of districts five and nine.

Macbeth-Evans Glass Company Will Disburse $17,061.40 to Employees

BUILDING NEW ADDITION

One of the largest pays in the history of the Charleroi plant of the Macbeth-Evans Glass company will be disbursed tomorrow, the time of the regular weekly pay. The pay will amount exactly to $17,061.40 and will include the ten per cent of advance in wages effective the first of April. Last Saturday's pay was large, totaling approximately $15,500. There are about 1,400 people employed at the Charleroi plant.

Work on the construction of a new addition to be known as the chemical department is progressing well. Structural iron work is up and affairs will be in shape for the brick layers to begin on Monday. The building will be about 60 by 163 feet and will be three stories high.

Manufacturing glass for chemical purposes is a new thing inaugurated here during the present year by the Macbeth-Evans company. Though it has been started this industry will not realize its fullest development until the new building is in shape.

SILVER SOCIAL HELD BY MISSION CIRCLE OF CHURCH

A silver social was held by the Mission Circle of the First Baptist church at the home of Mrs. Blanche Jacobs on Second street Wednesday afternoon. There was a good attendance at the affair. Fancy work was an interesting diversion of the afternoon. Recitations were given by Mrs. Frank Welch. Lunch was served by the hostess. The sum of $6 was realized by the effort.

Why not have a good up-to-date watch, when you can buy it with 10c down at Porter's jewelry store, where the big street clock is.

RIVER FRONTAGE AT DUNLEVY TO BE USED WITHIN 30 DAYS

Big Industrial Developments Indicated by Action in Ordering Tenants on Splendid Site to Move Within 30 Days

Evidences that there are to be important industrial developments on the river frontage at Dunlevy known as the Clark, Johnson and Donaldson farms was given Thursday when notices were served on the tenants to vacate within 30 days time. The Mellon interests at Pittsburg own the land, which is between the railroad and river and which is especially suited to industrial needs.

For years the site has been held presumably for a steel plant. In fact the United States Steel Corporation had it under consideration when the Donora bottoms were laid out.

There are about 60 acres it is believed in the tract desired. In the three farms there are probably all told 300 acres. The ejection notices were issued to seven families. The present site does not at the present time include all of the three mentioned farms.

The erection of a big plant is being openly discussed, and there is a pretty generally understanding among those who know anything at all of the project that something of the sort is in the wind, though no definite information is obtainable. Some sort of a deal was closed it is understood in New York city the middle of this week. This would give rise to the rumor that the United States Steel Corporation proposes to utilize the ground, though of course there can be nothing definite about this rumor.

From a casual observer's point of view a better location for United States Steel extensions could not be secured. The site is admittedly one of the best available along the Monongahela valley. Then the H. C. Frick Coke company, the subsidiary coal concern, owns at Dunlevy 3,000 acres of virgin coal, this being the largest untouched coal tract along the Monongahela valley.

GET EVIDENCE AGAINST TALBOT

Link by Link Firm Chain is Being Formed in Bank Robbery Case

DISTRICT ATTORNEY SPEAKS

Link by link, officers seem to be forming a firm chain of evidence around Thomas H. Talbot, the alleged Houston bank bandit who was placed in the county jail at Washington following his arrest the day before at Russellton.

Important developments Thursday were: Positive information was secured by County Detective Bert Laird and E. E. Dilley of the Burns force, that Talbot was seen in the vicinity of Houston on the day the First National bank was robbed of $16,587.

Finding of $1,661 at Talbot's home in Russellton, $80 of which sum was in fresh, crisp $10 notes that had never been put in circulation, they being certificates of the Houston bank.

Reported admission by Mrs. Talbot under grilling of officers that her husband was absent from home all last Thursday and that he returned late that night with a large sum of money.

Officers Laird and Dilley in their search for Talbot's confederate found the gun that is supposed to have been one used in forcing Cashier J. K. McNutt of Houston bank, into submission.

Fact established that Talbot's supposed pal in the daring robbery had made a getaway from his hiding place following the arrest of Talbot.

Confined in an isolated range in the Washington county jail, no visitors were permitted to see Talbot Thursday. In a reported conversation with a jail turnkey, Talbot is alleged to have remarked:

"I'll be out of here before the day is over." But he was still there Thursday night and the mass of seemingly overwhelming evidence against him, insures that he will remain there until he is brought to trial.

District Attorney I. W. Baum announced that Talbot would be arraigned before a Washington justice of the peace this morning and charges

CONSERVATION: CORPORATION.
The Bureau of Mines preaches a timely sermon on the conservation of the American oil deposits. It points out the appalling waste under the present system of promiscuous well drilling with no regard to the requirements of the market and no attempt at systematic production. Claims the California Sentinel: "There can be no satisfactory condition in the petroleum producing industry," says the Bureau of Mines, "until there is some intelligent co-ordination between the running of the drill and the requirements of the market."

The Bureau of Mines is preaching the forbidden doctrine of combination. Co-ordination means co-operation which is never effective until guaranteed by combination, either by actual merger into a big corporation or by the formation of a pool. Both combinations are unlawful, the principal difference between them being that the corporation is an open and the pool a secret combination. The corporation is more susceptible to the law, but the pool is prone to leak and dissolve through its own weakness.

The policy of conservation can profitably be applied to many American resources. Our coal and ore deposits for example. The day is coming when this policy will be adopted. Its adoption will be necessary in order to maintain our industrial competition with Germany and England.

Before it is put into practice, however, we will have to change our policy with regard to corporations, especially large corporations. The government will have to encourage the big industrial units, not destroy them. The remedy for Trust evils is Government regulation. The relation of the Government to the corporations should be paternal not inimical. The Government should see that the big corporations play fair, and after that it should enforce the principles of conservation upon all industrial interests alike.

This means more centralized power in the Government, but the country has long since ceased to worry about this condition. We have seen how suddenly the American people resumed control of their government when its administration didn't suit them, and we are due to have another illustration of the process this fall.

A Woman's Problem

How to Feel Well During Middle Life Told by Three Women Who Learned from Experience.

The Change of Life is a most critical period of a woman's existence, and neglect of health at this time invites disease and pain. Women everywhere should remember that there is no other remedy known to medicine that will so successfully carry women through this trying period as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs. Read these letters:—

Philadelphia, Pa.—"I started the Change of Life five years ago. I always had a headache and backache with bearing down pains and I would have heat flashes very bad at times with dizzy spells and nervous feelings. After taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I feel like a new person and am in better health and no more troubled with the aches and pains I had before I took your wonderful remedy. I recommend it to my friends for I cannot praise it enough."—Mrs. MARGARET GRASSMAN, 759 N. Ringgold St., Philadelphia, Pa.

Beverly, Mass.—"I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, for nervousness and dyspepsia, when I was going through the Change of Life. I found it very helpful and I have always spoken of it to other women who suffer as I did and have had them try it and they also have received good results from it."—Mrs. GEORGE A. DUNBAR, 17 Roundy St., Beverly, Mass.

Erie, Pa.—"I was in poor health when the Change of Life started with me and I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, or I think I should not have got over it as easy as I did. Even now if I do not feel good I take the Compound and it restores me in a short time. I will praise your remedies to every woman for it may help them as it has me."—Mrs. E. KISSLING, 931 East 24th St., Erie, Pa.

No other medicine has been so successful in relieving woman's suffering as has Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Women may receive free and helpful advice by writing the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass. Such letters are received and answered by women only and held in strict confidence.

HE SHOWED THAT SURGEON'S KNIFE LEFT RAD SCAR

Goebel Suffered Great Pain. Which Availed Him Nothing Toward Recovery.

There are scores of residents of Erie who are familiar with the condition of Louis Goebel, the well-known carpenter and all have sympathized sincerely with him in his sufferings.

Mr. Goebel exhibited an ugly crosslike scar on the outer surface of his abdomen.

"That is what the surgeons did for me. I was in the hospital for three months. They thought I had gall stones in my bladder, and I was told that the inflammation substances had overflowed to my stomach.

"They operated on me. Yes, sir, cut me open and after all of that suffering I had no results from the operation.

"I have been unable to work for a long time. Nearly everybody who knows me, knows that I am telling the gospel truth. Yes sir, this Tanlac has done what the knife couldn't do for me. I have used one single bottle of Tanlac and I feel like a new man. I am improving every day, getting my strength back. I expect to continue taking this Tanlac and I'm going back to work soon. This Tanlac has done more for me than everything else combined and I have taken, I guess, barrels of medicine. It's certainly a miracle."

Tanlac is now sold in Charleroi exclusively by Pipers Drug Store where the premier preparation can now be had.
